MEDIA ADVISORY

TV and Film Actor Joshua Malina Press Availability

Thursday, Jan. 25, 6 p.m. at the Forum in Harrisburg

SUMMARY

TV and film actor Joshua Malina will be available for interviews along with his cousins Harrisburg Symphony Maestro Stuart Malina and Joel Malina. Joshua, Joel, and Stuart Malina will be performing together this weekend in the Harrisburg Symphony's Capital BlueCross Pops production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "HMS Pinafore."

Joshua Malina has co-starred in NBC's "The West Wing," ABC's "Sports Night," and is currently co-starring in the recurring role of Howard Meeks on the CBS drama "NUMB3RS." He also recently appeared on ABC's "The Nine" as Tim Marley.

His film credits include "The American President," "A Few Good Men," "A View from the Top," and "Bulworth" to name a few. He is also a co-creator of Bravo's "Celebrity Poker Showdown."

Maestro Stuart Malina is music director and conductor of the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra. Malina will be making his Carnegie Hall debut on Feb. 9, by conducting the New York Pops in an all-Gershwin tribute including "Rhapsody in Blue," which he will conduct from the keyboard.

Malina won a Tony Award for orchestration with Billy Joel for the musical "Movin' Out," which he helped create with director and choreographer Twyla Tharp. An accomplished concert pianist, Malina has impressive credits as a soloist having performed in numerous concerts in the United States and Europe.

Joel Malina has starred in numerous productions including title roles in "Candide" at Atlanta's Alliance Theater and "George M!" at the Fireside Playhouse in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin; the original cast of "Fame: The Musical" at Miami's Coconut Grove Playhouse, Baltimore's Morris Mechanic Theater, and Philadelphia's Walnut Street Theater; and the New York productions of "The Rothschilds," "Philamon," "Bloffler Tonight!" and "Forever Plaid."
